Who is the head of Vatican City?

In addition to his spiritual authority, the Pope is also the head of the Vatican City, a sovereign city-state that operates independently of Italy. Vatican City, established as an independent state in 1929 through the Lateran Treaty, is the world's smallest country, but its unique status gives the Pope significant political power.

What is the citizenship of Vatican City based on?

Unlike citizenship of other states, which is based either on jus sanguinis (birth from a citizen, even outside the state's territory) or on jus soli (birth within the territory of the state), citizenship of Vatican City is granted on jus officii, namely on the grounds of appointment to work in a certain capacity in the service of the Holy See.

Who is responsible for civil defence in Vatican City?
