As a result, Supreme Source Energy Services provides a more technical approach to the planning, design, and execution of our client's projects. We accomplish this through years of experience and development of multiple proprietary down hole drilling systems. This is why we are different than any other standard horizontal and directional company.

Performance Energy Services was acquired by Danos Group Holdings in 2024. Danos Ventures, LLC facilitated the transaction and is a family-owned investment company dedicated to building an energy-sector portfolio that increases its ability to service customers and provide career development opportunities for employees.
