Can I use the Nomad solar panels with the Yeti 200?

You must use the Nomad solar panels with the Yeti 200 and not directly to charge devices. These panels are designed to work with the Goal Zero battery and that is the product you need to charge your devices off of while traveling.

Can I use the Nomad solar panels to charge a cell phone?

The Nomad solar panels cannot be used to charge a cell phone directly. Although there is a USB output, it is strongly discouraged as the panels do not contain a charge controller. An intermediary battery like the Yeti 200 is required.

Can I charge my Yeti with the Nomad?

The Nomad solar panel is designed to charge the Yeti battery and should not be used to charge devices directly, as it does not contain a charge controller. Charging a phone directly with the Nomad will ruin the battery.
