How long is a solar panel warranty?

Solar panel warranties vary depending on the manufacturer, but in the solar industry, a 10-year product warranty and a 25-year performance warranty are typically considered the minimum standard. However, some manufacturers provide a 25-year product warranty and extend the performance warranty to 30 years. How Much Does a Solar Panel Warranty Cost?

What types of warranties cover solar panels?

There are two basic types of warranties that cover solar panels. A product warranty protects you from defects in a solar panel stemming from material quality or manufacturing errors. This is also referred to as an equipment or materials warranty.

What is a performance warranty on a solar panel?

A performance warranty guarantees a maximum level of degradation- typically between .25% and .75% - per year so that in 25 years the panel will still have 80-90% of the power output it did in its first year. Performance warranties are important for sizing solar systems to maintain 100% offset for 25 years.

How do I get a solar panel warranty?

Generally, the most robust warranties are obtained by hiring installation companies certified by the solar brands they represent. Alternatively, long warranties can also be secured from solar manufacturers that provide their own installation services. What Is Not Covered by a Solar Panel Warranty?

Can a solar panel warranty be voided?

For example, warranties may be voided if the solar panels are not installed according to specified guidelines or if unauthorized modifications are made. Certain solar panel warranties might not cover fire damage or other outside sources.
